

I am writing to urge the FCC to continue the ban on cross-ownership of media outlets. Rescission of this ban will create an oligopoly on media outlets and the public will be exposed to fewer and fewer divergent views. Rescission will allow several multinational corporations to dictate what is read, seen and heard, ensuring that views antithetical to that corporation are never disseminated. So that the citizenry can be exposed to various views on all types of issues, I urge you to maintain the rule against cross-ownership.
